

DNT Photography is proud to be your photographer of choice for the upcoming SCRM Conference, February 25th – 27th, 2010.

Having the opportunity to photograph the SCRM Conference is very much an honor and of particular interest to me since music was my first introduction to artistic expression. I am a proud alumnus of The Sound of Today where I had the privilege to receive instruction from Mr. Jack White during his last year of tenure and Mr. Steven Pederson. Serving as the SCRMC photographer combines two of my greatest passions in life; music education and photography.

*Looking forward to meeting each of you,
Tassie Winters*

The following photography services are available to conference attendees:

8x12 Group Portrait Purchases of Participating Ensembles:
